§ 107.1240

SBA, the statement must include the name and address of each Small Business, and the amount and anticipated closing date of each proposed Financing.

- (e) Reporting requirements after drawing funds. (1) Within 30 calendar days after the actual closing date of each Financing funded with the proceeds of your draw, you must file an SBA Form 1031 confirming the closing of the transaction.
- (2) If SBA required you to provide information concerning a specific planned Financing under paragraph (d)(3) of this section, and such Financing has not closed within 60 calendar days after the anticipated closing date, you must give SBA a written explanation of the failure to close.
- (3) If you do not comply with this paragraph (e), you will not be eligible for additional draws. SBA may also determine that you are not in compliance with the terms of your Leverage under §§ 107.1810 or 107.1820.

§ 107.1240 Funding of Licensee's draw request through sale to short-term investor.

- (a) Licensee's authorization of SBA to arrange sale of securities to short-term investor. By submitting a request for a draw of Debenture or Participating Security Leverage, you authorize SBA, or any agent or trustee SBA designates, to enter into any agreements (and to bind you to such agreements) necessary to accomplish:
- (1) The sale of your Debenture or Participating Security to a short-term investor at a rate that may be different from the Trust Certificate Rate which will be established at the time of the pooling of your security;
- (2) The purchase of your security from the short-term investor, either by you or on your behalf; and
- (3) The pooling of your security with other securities with the same maturity date.
- (b) Sale of Debentures to a short-term investor. If SBA sells your Debenture to a short-term investor:
- (1) The sale price will be the face amount.

- (2) At the next scheduled date for the sale of Debenture Trust Certificates, whether or not the sale actually occurs, you must pay interest to the short-term investor for the short-term period. If the actual sale of Trust Certificates takes place after the scheduled date, you must pay the short-term investor interest from the scheduled sale date to the actual sale date. This additional interest is due on the actual sale date.
- (3) Failure to pay the interest constitutes noncompliance with the terms of your Leverage (see § 107.1810).
- (c) Sale of Participating Securities to a short-term investor. If SBA sells your Participating Security to a short-term investor, the sale price will be the face amount.
- (d) Licensee's right to repurchase its Debentures before pooling. You may repurchase your Debentures from the short-term investor before they are pooled. To do so, you must:
- (1) Give SBA written notice at least 10 days before the cut-off date for the pool in which your Debenture is to be included; and
- (2) Pay the face amount of the Debenture, plus interest, to the short-term investor.

Preferred Securities Leverage— Section 301(d) Licensees

§ 107.1400 Dividends or partnership distributions on 4 percent Preferred Securities.

If you issued Preferred Securities to SBA on or after November 21, 1989, you must pay SBA a dividend or partnership distribution of 4 percent per year, from the date you issued Preferred Securities to the date you repay them, both inclusive. The dividend or partnership distribution is:

- (a) Computed on the par value of the outstanding stock or the face value of the outstanding limited partnership interest
- (b) Cumulative. This means that if you do not pay the entire dividend or partnership distribution for a given fiscal year, the unpaid balance accumulates as a distribution in arrears. You
